

HANDS in Autism®

SERVICE & TRAINING OPTIONS

The training framework and curriculum for the HANDS in Autism® Interdisciplinary Training & Resource Center is based upon evidence-based strategies and practices appropriate and effective for individuals across the lifespan and with a range of neuro-developmental and behavioral disorders. Information, education and training are provided by an interdisciplinary staff and applicable at the individual, organizational, and community levels of service and training.

Level 4: Individualized Programming

- HANDS Lab Site
- Individual & Group Programming
- Internships / Experiential Learning

Level 3: Intensive Training/Consultation

- Collaborative Site Development
- 3-Day & Week-long Intensive Trainings
- Multi-Visit Team Consultations
- Train-the-Trainer Events

Level 2: General Training/Consultation

- Setting-Based Consultations
- Program Evaluation & Consultation
- Customizable Training & Consultation Packages
- Interactive Workshops
- Traditional In-Service Trainings & Live Webinars
- Online Interactive Modules

Level 1: Dissemination

- Conferences
- Website Subscriptions
- Informational Material Distribution
- Visual Support Toolkits
- Instructional Manuals & Digital Media

Targeted
Individualized
Direct Service

Mentoring
Demonstration/
Intensive Site

Coaching
Intensive Multi-Day
Trainings/Consultations

Consultation
Observation/Shadowing/Rounding

Workshops
Customizable Training Events

Traditional Instruction
Lectures/Discussions/E-learning

Awareness
Online and Print Materials & Resources

Complementary Resources

- Practical Pointers
- eNewsletters
- Social Networking
- Local Community Cadres (LCC)
- Annual Art Exposition
- Select Trainings, Events, Web Resources, & Products
- Community Days

Online Learning

The selection of options is for reference only. Details for each level and preferences as to the types and frequency of communication/training are customizable.